There is one newspaper in the East which has taken the correct view of the Chinese question. The Cincinnati Times-Star says: "Inere is scarcely anything more odious than the carpet bagger, and the most detestable of all carpet baggers is the Chmaman. We cannot welcome him as an immigraut, for he does not come to stay. He sneaks in at the Golden gate, sneaks around until his pockets are lined with Amercan money, and then sneaks back to China to spend It. Altogether he is not the sort of a chap any country would receive with open arms."
